Tips to make your move a little easier

bags, tissue paper, newspapers, and small towels to use as padding inside boxes Create a "portable packing kit" with marking pens, a tape measure, packing tape, twine, and scissors. Carry it with you as you pack up items around your home Reinforce the bottom of boxes with extra tape for added strength Label each box with the name of the room in your new home where it should be placed List the contents of the box on the side of it Number the boxes and keep a list of which boxes go in which room in your new home Label boxes containing fragile items with large red lettering Place china in plastic bags and stack plates upright on their sides, not flat Pack your TV, stereo, and computer in their original boxes whenever possible Keep boxes to 50 pounds or less Pack heavy items into their own smaller boxes and place lighter items together into larger boxes. (Don't pack all your books into one box!) Don't move flammable, combustible, corrosive, or explosive items such as paint, gasoline, and ammunition Pack a bag of personal items you'll need during the move (change of clothes, toiletries, medicine, maps, food, and drinks). Keep it in an easy-to-find place when you pack eral Moving Tips Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the	inį	g Tips
bags, tissue paper, newspapers, and small towels to use as padding inside boxes Create a "portable packing kit" with marking pens, a tape measure, packing tape, twine, and scissors. Carry it with you as you pack up items around your home Reinforce the bottom of boxes with extra tape for added strength Label each box with the name of the room in your new home where it should be placed List the contents of the box on the side of it Number the boxes and keep a list of which boxes go in which room in your new home Label boxes containing fragile items with large red lettering Place china in plastic bags and stack plates upright on their sides, not flat Pack your TV, stereo, and computer in their original boxes whenever possible Keep boxes to 50 pounds or less Pack heavy items into their own smaller boxes and place lighter items together into larger boxes. (Don't pack all your books into one box!) Don't move flammable, combustible, corrosive, or explosive items such as paint, gasoline, and ammunition Pack a bag of personal items you'll need during the move (change of clothes, toiletries, medicine, maps, food, and drinks). Keep it in an easy-to-find place when you pack eral Moving Tips Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the		Gather boxes in all sizes from friends, neighbors, and stores
Create a "portable packing kit" with marking pens, a tape measure, packing tape, twine, and scissors. Carry it with you as you pack up items around your home Reinforce the bottom of boxes with extra tape for added strength Label each box with the name of the room in your new home where it should be placed List the contents of the box on the side of it Number the boxes and keep a list of which boxes go in which room in your new home Label boxes containing fragile items with large red lettering Place china in plastic bags and stack plates upright on their sides, not flat Pack your TV, stereo, and computer in their original boxes whenever possible Keep boxes to 50 pounds or less Pack heavy items into their own smaller boxes and place lighter items together into larger boxes. (Don't pack all your books into one box!) Don't move flammable, combustible, corrosive, or explosive items such as paint, gasoline, and ammunition Pack a bag of personal items you'll need during the move (change of clothes, toiletries, medicine, maps, food, and drinks). Keep it in an easy-to-find place when you pack eral Moving Tips Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the		Collect cushioning material such as bubble wrap, foam pellets, furniture pads, old blankets, plastic
Create a "portable packing kit" with marking pens, a tape measure, packing tape, twine, and scissors. Carry it with you as you pack up items around your home Reinforce the bottom of boxes with extra tape for added strength Label each box with the name of the room in your new home where it should be placed List the contents of the box on the side of it Number the boxes and keep a list of which boxes go in which room in your new home Label boxes containing fragile items with large red lettering Place china in plastic bags and stack plates upright on their sides, not flat Pack your TV, stereo, and computer in their original boxes whenever possible Keep boxes to 50 pounds or less Pack heavy items into their own smaller boxes and place lighter items together into larger boxes. (Don't pack all your books into one box!) Don't move flammable, combustible, corrosive, or explosive items such as paint, gasoline, and ammunition Pack a bag of personal items you'll need during the move (change of clothes, toiletries, medicine, maps, food, and drinks). Keep it in an easy-to-find place when you pack eral Moving Tips Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the		bags, tissue paper, newspapers, and small towels to use as padding inside boxes scissors. Carry it with you as you pack up items around your home Reinforce the bottom of boxes with extra tape for added strength Label each box with the name of the room in your new home where it should be placed List the contents of the box on the side of it Number the boxes and keep a list of which boxes go in which room in your new home Label boxes containing fragile items with large red lettering Place china in plastic bags and stack plates upright on their sides, not flat Pack your TV, stereo, and computer in their original boxes whenever possible Keep boxes to 50 pounds or less Pack heavy items into their own smaller boxes and place lighter items together into larger boxes. (Don't pack all your books into one box!) Don't move flammable, combustible, corrosive, or explosive items such as paint, gasoline, and ammunition Pack a bag of personal items you'll need during the move (change of clothes, toiletries, medicine, maps, food, and drinks). Keep it in an easy-to-find place when you pack Tal Moving Tips Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the Label each box with the name of the room in your new home where it should be placed List the contents of the box on the side of it Number the boxes and keep a list of which boxes go in which room in your new home Label boxes containing fragile items with large red lettering Place china in plastic bags and stack plates upright on their sides, not flat Pack your TV, stereo, and computer in their original boxes whenever possible Keep boxes to 50 pounds or less Pack heavy items into their own smaller boxes and place lighter items together into larger boxes. (Don't pack all your books into one box!) Don't move flammable, combustible, corrosive, or explosive items such as paint, gasoline, and ammunition Pack a bag of personal items you'll need during the move (change of clothes, toiletries, medicine, maps, food, and drinks). Keep it in an easy-to-find place when you pack al Moving Tips Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the
Label each box with the name of the room in your new home where it should be placed List the contents of the box on the side of it Number the boxes and keep a list of which boxes go in which room in your new home Label boxes containing fragile items with large red lettering Place china in plastic bags and stack plates upright on their sides, not flat Pack your TV, stereo, and computer in their original boxes whenever possible Keep boxes to 50 pounds or less Pack heavy items into their own smaller boxes and place lighter items together into larger boxes. (Don't pack all your books into one box!) Don't move flammable, combustible, corrosive, or explosive items such as paint, gasoline, and ammunition Pack a bag of personal items you'll need during the move (change of clothes, toiletries, medicine, maps, food, and drinks). Keep it in an easy-to-find place when you pack al Moving Tips Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · List the contents of the box on the side of it Number the boxes and keep a list of which boxes go in which room in your new home Label boxes containing fragile items with large red lettering Place china in plastic bags and stack plates upright on their sides, not flat Pack your TV, stereo, and computer in their original boxes whenever possible Keep boxes to 50 pounds or less Pack heavy items into their own smaller boxes and place lighter items together into larger boxes. (Don't pack all your books into one box!) Don't move flammable, combustible, corrosive, or explosive items such as paint, gasoline, and ammunition Pack a bag of personal items you'll need during the move (change of clothes, toiletries, medicine, maps, food, and drinks). Keep it in an easy-to-find place when you pack al Moving Tips Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the Number the boxes and keep a list of which boxes go in which room in your new home Label boxes containing fragile items with large red lettering Place china in plastic bags and stack plates upright on their sides, not flat Pack your TV, stereo, and computer in their original boxes whenever possible Keep boxes to 50 pounds or less Pack heavy items into their own smaller boxes and place lighter items together into larger boxes. (Don't pack all your books into one box!) Don't move flammable, combustible, corrosive, or explosive items such as paint, gasoline, and ammunition Pack a bag of personal items you'll need during the move (change of clothes, toiletries, medicine, maps, food, and drinks). Keep it in an easy-to-find place when you pack al Moving Tips Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the Label boxes containing fragile items with large red lettering Place china in plastic bags and stack plates upright on their sides, not flat Pack your TV, stereo, and computer in their original boxes whenever possible Keep boxes to 50 pounds or less Pack heavy items into their own smaller boxes and place lighter items together into larger boxes. (Don't pack all your books into one box!) Don't move flammable, combustible, corrosive, or explosive items such as paint, gasoline, and ammunition Pack a bag of personal items you'll need during the move (change of clothes, toiletries, medicine, maps, food, and drinks). Keep it in an easy-to-find place when you pack Al Moving Tips Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the Place china in plastic bags and stack plates upright on their sides, not flat Pack your TV, stereo, and computer in their original boxes whenever possible Keep boxes to 50 pounds or less Pack heavy items into their own smaller boxes and place lighter items together into larger boxes. (Don't pack all your books into one box!) Don't move flammable, combustible, corrosive, or explosive items such as paint, gasoline, and ammunition Pack a bag of personal items you'll need during the move (change of clothes, toiletries, medicine, maps, food, and drinks). Keep it in an easy-to-find place when you pack Moving Tips Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the Pack your TV, stereo, and computer in their original boxes whenever possible Keep boxes to 50 pounds or less Pack heavy items into their own smaller boxes and place lighter items together into larger boxes. (Don't pack all your books into one box!) Don't move flammable, combustible, corrosive, or explosive items such as paint, gasoline, and ammunition Pack a bag of personal items you'll need during the move (change of clothes, toiletries, medicine, maps, food, and drinks). Keep it in an easy-to-find place when you pack Bisconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the Reep boxes to 50 pounds or less Pack heavy items into their own smaller boxes and place lighter items together into larger boxes. (Don't pack all your books into one box!) Don't move flammable, combustible, corrosive, or explosive items such as paint, gasoline, and ammunition Pack a bag of personal items you'll need during the move (change of clothes, toiletries, medicine, maps, food, and drinks). Keep it in an easy-to-find place when you pack Moving Tips Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the Pack heavy items into their own smaller boxes and place lighter items together into larger boxes. (Don't pack all your books into one box!) Don't move flammable, combustible, corrosive, or explosive items such as paint, gasoline, and ammunition Pack a bag of personal items you'll need during the move (change of clothes, toiletries, medicine, maps, food, and drinks). Keep it in an easy-to-find place when you pack Al Moving Tips Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the (Don't pack all your books into one box!) Don't move flammable, combustible, corrosive, or explosive items such as paint, gasoline, and ammunition Pack a bag of personal items you'll need during the move (change of clothes, toiletries, medicine, maps, food, and drinks). Keep it in an easy-to-find place when you pack It is a material materia Don't move flammable, combustible, corrosive, or explosive items such as paint, gasoline, and ammunition Pack a bag of personal items you'll need during the move (change of clothes, toiletries, medicine, maps, food, and drinks). Keep it in an easy-to-find place when you pack Moving Tips Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the ammunition Pack a bag of personal items you'll need during the move (change of clothes, toiletries, medicine, maps, food, and drinks). Keep it in an easy-to-find place when you pack Moving Tips Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the Pack a bag of personal items you'll need during the move (change of clothes, toiletries, medicine, maps, food, and drinks). Keep it in an easy-to-find place when you pack Al Moving Tips Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the		1 maps, food, and drinks). Keep it in an easy-to-find place when you pack Moving Tips Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the Il Moving Tips Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the
Disconnect and bundle cords on television and stereo components. Label each cord with masking tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the	ı	l Moving Tips
tape and a description of where to connect it Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the Plan and measure where your furniture will be placed in your new home. It's helpful to draw a layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the layout of your new home and sketch in the major furniture pieces To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the
To save time on moving day, move your boxes from the basement, upstairs, or attic to main floor prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the prior to the move date. Consider carrying items from the back yard to the front yard or garage ahe of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the
of time Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the Keep your phone connected through moving day to stay in touch with friends, family, and the
		of time
		moving company
moving company		moving company

Packing List By Room Kitchen ____ Cupboards Closets Drawers Box numbers for kitchen Dining Room China cabinet or hutch Light fixture and lamps Furniture: tables and chairs Box numbers for dining room Living Room Bookcases and contents Entertainment center and contents: stereo, TV, CDs, videotapes, and so on ___ Knick knacks and artwork Furniture: couch, chairs, and tables Box numbers for living room Family Room Entertainment center and contents: stereo, TV, CDs, videotapes, and so on Knick knacks and artwork Furniture: couch, chairs, and tables Lamps Box numbers for family room

Master Bedr
Close	et e
Dress	sers and contents
Furni	ture: bed, dressers, night stands, and desk

Box numbers	for master bedroom Bedroom #1 Close
Furni	sers and contents ture: bed, dressers, night stands, and desk
Box numbers	of bedroom #1
Bedroom #2 Close	et
Dress	sers and contents
Furni =	ture: bed, dressers, night stands, and desk
	of bedroom #2
Bedroom #3 Close	s t
	sers and contents
	ture: bed, dressers, night stands, and desk
Box numbers	of bedroom #3

Study	/Office
	Computer equipment: CPU, mon	itor, and printer
	Desk and contents
	Bookshelves and contents
	File cabinets and contents
Box n	umbers for study/office
Bathr	room
	Cupboards and contents
	Linens and towels
	Knick knacks and wall hangings
Box n	umbers for bathroom
A 44•
Attic	m 1
	Trunks
	Boxes
D
вох п	umbers for attic
Garag	TO.
Garag	Yard equipment and garden tools Home maintenance equipment an frome maintenance equipment an	u 10018
Boy n	umbers for garage
וו אטם	uniocis for garage

_ Cı	ipboards a	and shelves

Brought to you by:

Landtree REALTORS 1570 W. Main Street Greenwood, Indiana 46142

(317) 888-3331 / (800) 221-1114

http://www.LandtreeRealtors.com info@LandtreeRealtors.com